Course Overview

Mass Casualty and Active Shooter incidents have been on a steady and continuous rise over the past decade. Most situations last less than 12 minutes and can occur anywhere—not just a school. Having an understanding of why these events occur and how to prevent them, coupled with a foundation of civilian tactics, is crucial to a civilian's safety. This course is not written for law enforcement officers.

Topics to be covered:

- Define what a Mass Casualty/Active Shooter event is
- Understand statistical data and frequency of events
- Familiarization of the effects of an event on society
- Understand deficiencies in our culture that contribute to these events
