President's Message

I hope you survived the cold snap and the Christmas and New Year celebrations and are ready for 2011. At the center we ended the year with a really great turnout for the General Meeting on December 11th. We had 82 people sign up to attend, not all showed up but we had a very large group. The officers for this next year are, myself, Joseph Mangino as President; Mrs. Ferrell Mazzatto as 1st VP; Mr. Frank Nutt as 2nd VP; Mr. Bill Fleming as Treasurer; and Mrs. Rita Long as your new Secretary. The officers were seated and assumed their new offices at the conclusion of the voting. The Board of Directors remains the same as shown in your last newsletter.

The newly elected officers met on the following Monday to discuss the path we will be taking to improve on activities, increased security, and increasing our membership so as to provide service to as many of our local seniors as we can reach. We have about the best facility to support seniors in the whole of Brevard County and continually strive to enhance our capabilities. With this in mind, your officers will be moving ahead not only improving the facilities but also contacting as many of you as possible to ascertain just what it is you think will make this a better and more enjoyable place to come.

On a more sober note, over the past several weeks we have been experiencing several thefts at the center. After assembling the Christmas Village that was so graciously donated by one of our members, we found that 18 of the major pieces were missing. This took place over a ten day period of time and at various times including when the center was open for both regular and special events. This folks is stealing from not only the center, but your fellow members, and you. We hope the persons responsible will find it in their heart to return the items. We also had someone break into the desk in the lobby and take $25.00 of dues and donation money. We called the police to report the incident and it has been recorded. I know it's a hard pill to swallow to think that we have a person or persons that have what's called STICKY FINGERS but that is the way it is. We can only ask that each of you be vigilant in looking out for your center so that it remains a great place to come. If someone needs something we have, we will be only too glad to help them. The Officers and Board of Directors are all available to make things happen for those who are in need, and will do things privately so that it remains personal.

God Bless you all, have a Happy, Safe and Healthy New Year.

Respectfully, Your President
Joseph (Joe) Mangino

DECEMBER GENERAL MEETING & ELECTION OF 2011 OFFICERS SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2010

Bell Ringers from Indian River United Methodist Church provided an array of Christmas music for our enjoyment.

Following the general meeting and election of officers, a free lunch was served and enjoyed by all. So many compliments went to the chef for the meal and the delicious cheese cake served for dessert. The room was filled with holiday spirit, and a good time was had by all.
