QIGONG

Qi is the Chinese word for "life energy." In Chinese medicine it's the animating power that flows through all living things. GONG means "work" or benefits acquired through perseverance and practice. Qigong is the working with the life energy, learning how to control the flow and distribution of Qi and to improve the health and harmony of one's body, mind and spirit. The yoga exercises are designed to ease tense muscles, and tone up the internal organs and improve suppleness and strength.

President's Message

We're still in the midst of the worse cold winter in Florida history. The only fun part is seeing some of the Snowbirds walking around in shorts, telling us that this is like summer to them. For me, I'll still keep my heavy jacket available until I am sure that the temperature will be above 75 degrees. The center is still going full blast trying to meet your needs. There are many programs which we are anticipating for your enjoyment. The only drawback is the availability of space for the expanded activity. We're still working hard to expand our facilities through the addition of two modular units adding 1400 sq ft in the rear of the building. With any luck, we'll have them in place by the beginning of June, sooner if they become available. We are also trying to locate an additional set of modular units which will provide an additional 1400 sq ft of space. With this added space, we should be able to accommodate the planned increase in membership, and the added activities.

We are still in need of volunteers to assist in operating the center. It has been suggested that we expand our operating hours so that we will remain open Friday afternoon to increase services to our members. In order to expand our services, we will need additional help on the front desk. If you have some time to spare and want to help the center grow, let us know what time you have available and we will welcome your help.

Remember, make sure your dues are paid for the 2011 year. It will cost you an extra $1.00 per activity if you are not a paid 2011 member, so make sure and check your membership card.

Take care and be safe
 Your President,

Joseph M. Mangino
